RISKS

Cryptocurrency and tokens come with inherent risks including the loss of purchase price, extreme price volatility and unpredictable market behavior.

1. Blockchain Risk: Blockchain system congestion may cause transactions to be processed late or be invalidated. The ONINO team cannot be held accountable for any damage done by bugs, deficiencies or related problems to the underlying blockchain structure.
2. Transaction privacy leakage: Your personal information is required to distribute and control ONI tokens in the purchasers' electronic wallets. ONI tokens stored in the wallets may be changed or lost due to an internal or external factor such as attack from malicious code, software bugs, blockchain networks error, at the request of a regulator (only where required to do so by law will we provide such information and in all cases we will only ever provide the minimum amount of information required by law) and more.

If a participant is using a different wallet, the participant may not be able to access the purchased ONI token and this may be lost. ONINO and the ONINO Team will not be responsible and will not reimburse for any loss or loss of ONI as a result of such incompatibility or loss derived from such incompatibility.

5. Market volatility risk: Participants must be aware that cryptocurrency and tokens are extremely volatile and carry significant risk and financial risk. This can be impacted by events, rhetoric, understanding (or misunderstanding) for any or no reason and participants must ensure they are fully aware, accept and are able to deal with these risks, the volatility and the potential loss that may come as a direct or indirect result.
